Old Business

Discussion regarding the Summer Meltdown Festival-Kristy stated things are coming together well. Jim Linsley is on for the “Get Your Grill On” Contest. There will be the pet parade, arm bands will be sold for $10.00 which will allow kids to jump all day if purchased, a few vendors serving carnival type food, an evening family movie and many other attractions.

The offer on the table from Jim Linsley is to offer a beer tasting tent. Jim will have the license, not the park district. There would be a fee to enter and you would not be able to leave the tent with beer and it would be served in 3oz. servings. With this arrangement beer and wine could be served, but would be served in moderation and will be restricted to a specific time frame for serving. The beer tasting would not feature any mainstream brands. In order to offer this we need to vote to make an exception to our Ordinance banning beer and liquor in the parks for the purpose of this event only.

A motion was made to allow an exception to the Ordinance regarding prohibition of alcohol in the park for the purpose of beer and wine tasting during the Summer Meltdown. (Cox, Weston; Roll Call vote: 3 Aye votes Cox, Knoblauch, Weston- 2 Nay votes Bremner, Claus)
