2021 Live Music Schedule

All live music will be held at the Grange Shelter. Feel free to bring your chairs and blankets to enjoy the entertainment. The musicians will be mostly acoustic and play a wide range of easy listening music.

Saturday, August 21st:

10:00AM-12:00PM Steve Hargis

An entertainer for 20+ years across the Midwest. Steve Hargis has performed in many fairs, festivals, retirement homes, and events! Steve has had the enjoyment of opening for such acts as Lonestar, Steve Holy, David Ball, and T. Graham Brown. While country music is his passion, he loves to sing all varieties of music such as gospel, oldies and 70's. Steve's vocal abilities span across multiple decades of music, performing from such artists as Hank Williams, Elvis Presley, Conway Twitty, Johnny Cash, George Strait and Garth Brooks!

12:30-2:30PM Nathan Taylor & Friends

Nathan Taylor & Friends explode with rich sound and purely blended talent. This talent is bathed in a wide range of vintage American blues and roots music. From classic roots songs and blues of the delta to the early New Orleans jazz and Nathan Taylor originals, their audiences dance to soulful spins on the old styles mixed with new music.

3:00-5:00PM Banjovi, Hawkins, & Anne

Singing 70's & 80's light rock that'll get you singing along with some country crossovers & some bluegrass favs. With both Male and female leads, we offer a variety of sounds which are combined with our 3-part harmonies.

Sunday, August 22nd:

10:30AM-12:00PM James Herr

James Herr is an acoustic artist known for his authentic performances of James Taylor and other singer songwriters including Paul Simon, Jim Croce, Ed Sheeran along with a few originals. His love of singer-songwriters comes through in his expert fingerpicking style and baritone voice which has delighted musicians and audiences throughout the area.

12:30-1:30PM Washington Good Neighbor Day awards with a special presentation by NITSCH Theatre Group

2:00-4:00PM Brian Carroll

Above all else, Brian Carroll is a music lover. That's why you'll hear a wide variety of songs and styles when he plays. As a 30 year veteran of Central Illinois' music scene, and frontman for the bands Jamm Sammich and The Corn Wolves, he has become a familiar face - but, his favorite performances are the more intimate, stripped down opportunities to just play guitar and sing - tell some stories, crack wise and take requests - with other music lovers.
